

Tackling Inequalities for our Children Programme

Alliance for Life Chances

12th July 2022
Salts Mill

Orange
Stage

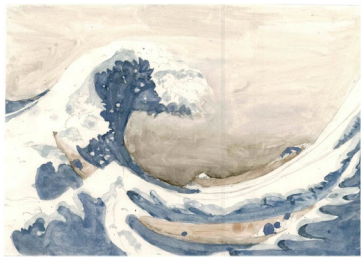

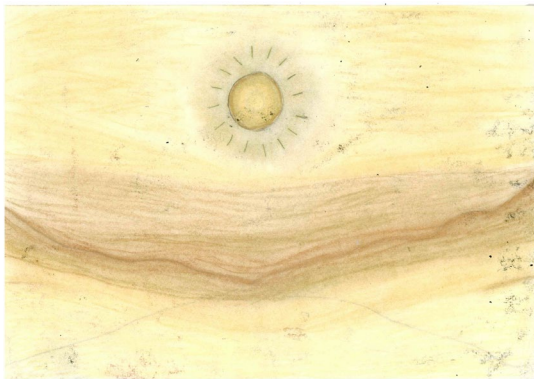

Blue
Stage

Lunch
11.45 - 14.15

09.15 - 10.00	Arrival, Registration & Refreshments
10.00 - 10.45	Welcome speech: Bradford Opportunity Area success and impact by Anne-Marie Canning MBE (Chair of Bradford Opportunity Area Programme) Bradford Students Building our Legacy by Kathryn Loftus Programme Director (Bradford Opportunity Area Programme)
10.50 - 11.45	Supporting cognitive health development	Strengthening school leadership and improving access to high quality teaching
11.45 - 12.40	Digital and Data	Improving community engagement
12.40 - 12.50	Hazelbeck Performing Arts Group	St. John's School Choir live performance
12.50 - 13.20	Networking session
13.20 - 14.15	Enhancing career opportunities for children	Removing health barriers to education
14.15 - 15.10	Creating a holistic ecosystem for tackling inequalities	Creating neurodiversity friendly schools
15.10 - 15.20	Learn how a major organisation created opportunities by opening an office in Bradford by PWC	Discover how a network of 'research champions' started to drive evidence-based education by Laura Reynolds &amp; Mehreen Ali.
15.20 - 15.40	Using worldclass data to deliver worldclass service by Prof Mark Mon-Williams, Professor of Cognitive Psychology, University of Leeds/ Chair in Psychology BIHR &amp; Prof John Wright, Director, Bradford Institute for Health Research
15.40-15.50	Alliance for Life Chances pledge &amp; call to action by Anne-Marie Canning MBE (Chair of Bradford Opportunity Area Programme)
15.50 - 16.00	Closing remarks and thank you by Kathryn Loftus Programme Director (Bradford Opportunity Area Programme)

Paintings created as part of the Boy87 project

